Not long since, a young lady came to this city from the southern part of the State. She was about eighteen years of age. The first Sabbath after her arrival she attended services in our church, and could hardly express her feelings of what she had heard. Can you believe it? She had never heard the Bible read, a prayer offered or a hymn sung before? Do we need more missionaries? D EQUESTS are frequently made for books suitable for reading rooms among our exceptional peoples. Any one wishing to grant these desires by contributing to this helpful agency may communicate with the Secretary of the Young People s Department. M. J. P. The greatest obstacle to financial, numerical and spiritual growth is the peculiar condition of labor in this city of factories (Portland, Oregon). Nowhere else on the Pacific Coast is...
