OUR DENOMINATIONAL OUTLOOK (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Our Denominational Outlook Yet before I begin to tell what Baptists have done, are doing, and need to do, I must say what a Baptist is. What is the essential principle for which we contend? I maintain that we stand above all things for a spiritual church. The church is the body of Christ. It properly consists only of those who have been renewed by the Spirit of God, and are joined to Christ by a living faith. This conception of a spiritual church carries with it all the other articles of our creed. The word spiritual suggests the deity of Christ, whose omnipotent Spirit is the source of the church's life. The word church suggests the outward expression of that life in the forms appointed by Christ himself. Thus a spiritual church implies a regenerate church membership on the one hand, and the New Testament ordinances and polity on the other. Dependence on the Scriptures as the sufficient and only standard of faith and practice, and independence of the State in all matters of doctrine and government, while they are not the central truths, are yet logical corollaries of the Baptist faith. It is the vision of a spiritual church which Baptists have ever had before them. Our insistence upon the proper subjects and the proper mode of baptism is not the essential, but only the incidental, of our belief. Because we hold that the church is the body of Christ, we cannot accept the statement of the Westminster Confession that the church consists of those who profess the true religion, together with their children, for this includes in the church those who...
