SPECIAL METHODS OF INSTRUCTION, VOL. 1 (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Special Methods of Instruction, Vol. 1 Special Methods deal with practical classroom work. Logically such methods are expressed in the form of sentences in the imperative mood, each sentence corresponding to a definite situation. General method is somewhat the same save that the sentences correspond only in a general way to a number of definite situations. Neither general nor special methods are directly concerned with aims of education, underlying principles of instruction, historical development, comparative values, and the like. Such aspects belong to the field of the theory of education. The present volume deals with special methods of instruction. The generous latitude which is allowed, and the universal encouragement of initiative and original work which is given by the Department of Education of New York City have enabled me to try out methods in all the elementary school grades. My thanks are due to the teachers of five schools who have given aid and suggestions. Throughout the book traces are due to long association with such leaders in practical education as Principals S. Badanes, B. Cronson, W. E. Grady, W. F. Kurtz, L. Marks, R. F. McCormack, J. J. O Regan, J. J. O Reilly, J. E. Wade, and Superintendents A. W. Edson, E. D. Farrell, H. W. Jameson, W. H Maxwell, and B. Veit. Suggestions on formal grammar have been given by Principal J. J. O Reilly, one of the most practical teachers in the City. Dr. S. Badanes has read tho proofs and has made corrections in the chapters on arithmetic and on language work. The literature in English and German of which I have made use will be treated critically in a...
