Not illustrated. 1914 Excerpt: .Express companies will usually carry such gifts free of charge. Work for the sick, if the Mercy and Help Department is to be made a genuine social service agency, must not end with relief. It must be extended until it looks also to the prevention of illness and to the aggressive advocating of public health measures. The local Health Department will be glad of volunteer help in spreading knowledge concerning its plans for sanitation and the proper care of disease, in reporting violations of health laws, in distributing literature dealing with public health, in its efforts to eliminate improper housing conditions, and in the effort to enforce the health laws of the community. The Chicago Health Department is now issuing certificates to moving picture theaters which have good ventilation, and calling upon the public to patronize only those having such certificates. This plan may be followed in any place and may be applied to all buildings used for public gatherings, including churches. Aiding the Prisoner.---Reading matter may be distributed in the jails, and if this service is attempted it should be systematic and continuous. And such reading matter should be fresh and interesting. Out of date Church papers will not interest the people usually found in jails. Find out whether the prisoners are given employment. If they are not, insist that they be given something to do for a reasonable number of hours six days in the week. Interest the judges and legal officials in helping to...
