When He speaks His gentle voice calms my inner man, and He whispers to my spirit that I am His. He speaks over and over again how He loves me. Every time I come, He says it again, I am His, He is mine. These words echo in my mind and heart and I begin to believe that it could be true. I ask Him about this fear and that negative feeling and He responds to each one sending me to scriptures that are far to similar to always be coincidence. My confidence in His love rises as I begin to believe that He will always answer and His love for me won t change. I start to notice that issues of the past start to melt away, past sins are gently overcome by His acceptance of me. Insecurities shrink and I am no longer shifted so easily by life and rejection from others. Love seems to have become my nature and I don t remember having chosen to behave. At times I am tempted to return eye for eye, but now I turn to my Comfort and the temptation leaves and I choose love instead. The moments of temptation become fewer and fewer. I find that I hunger for His voice and His word. I want to see mysteries in the scriptures and find new ways to love others. He answers my question, How do I do this? Will You teach me to do that? Always His love is wooing me and beaconing me to come away, and I find that He is now my delight. Now every negative...
