Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Toby Turner didn't expect to stumble upon the remains of a human skeleton, washed down from the cliff top by a recent landslip, because until now nothing exciting had ever happened to Toby Turner. He runs a small bookshop in the quiet seaside town of Lyme Regis in Dorset. His life's not quite on track; his bookshop's not doing too well, for one thing, and he's not sure his relationship with his girlfriend-cum-fiance Trisha is going anywhere either - at least, nowhere she would like it to go. Trisha was introduced to Toby by his best friend Mark Boothman, and now he's beginning to wish he hadn't. Toby takes a dejected walk along the Blue Lias cliffs on Monmouth Beach to think things through, and here he finds the body of a woman murdered in 1978. The gruesome discovery and the resulting media attention he receives would have been bad enough to cope with, but he soon discovers he's being haunted by the woman from the Blue Lias. She tells him she loves him. What's more, he finds himself falling in love with her, finding he is unable to live without the one woman he has ever truly loved. His strange obsession starts to have a negative effect on his life and his health, which starts to deteriorate. In an effort to cure himself, he decides to try and solve the mystery of her death and why she chose him, of all people, to haunt and fall in love with, hoping by discovering what happened to her all those years ago they can both find peace. And so begins Toby...
