AMY PEPPERCORN: STARRY-EYED AND SCREAMING

A Dolphin Paperback, 2003. Soft cover. Book Condition: New. 203 Pages. Book Description: Sixteen-year-old Amy Peppercorn has a lot to scream about. She's struggling with her A-Levels and coping with her two-year-old sisters while her parents tear each other apart. Her best friend is being lured away from her. Then Amy falls under the spell of cool, elusive Ben and joins his his band. Winning his approval means careering through the streets in a stolen car, skipping school, and staying out late. Amy could be in trouble. But she leaves the band behind. She's not like the others. She's going to be a pop sensation. At the end of a stunning novel that packs a huge emotional punch, she is on the brink of stardom - but knows there will be a terrible price to pay. John Brindley is a compelling and very distinctive writer with terrific insight into teenage relationships, hopes and fears. He writes brilliantly about the pop world and the dangerous world of joyriding and police chases. This is a must-read. From the Back Cover Sixteen-year-old Amy Peppercorn has a lot to scream about. Her best friend Beccs is being lured away by that hateful boy beacon, Kirsty. School sucks. Her family are impossible to live with. Know the feeling? Then - although she SO didn't mean to - she falls under the spell of the cool, irresistible Ben and joins his band. Everything changes. Because Amy's scream is her fortune. She's going to be a pop sensation and she's on her way. As John Brindley charts her road to fame there is glitz and excitement. But secrets and startling revelations also unfold in a story that packs a huge emotional punch. Stardom has its price - how much will Amy pay? About the Author John Brindley...
